SC Court of Appeals

Dear Ms. Allen:

We have previously responded to your prior letters regarding my motion to reinstate the appeal. I was never obligated to copy the forms which you recommended, as the Court has made clear, and you are in possession of all fees required ($50.00) for the filing of the appeal. Of course you admitted in that prior letter that you were in possession of the Motion to Reinstate the Appeal. Please review our response which was already sent to your office. You are also in possession of the $50.00 fee, which was sent to you in the form of a money order. There are no legal further corrections which have to be made to the face of any document sent to you, and no further "corrections" will be sent. You as a clerk have no authority to return the motion to the lower court, in these circumstances. Please immediately correct all of these gross procedural errors. Interference with the filing of a properly submitted appellate motion is of course a violation of due process.

Sincerely,
