Motion to Strike and why/verdict on fraudulent Commitment order

SC Court of Appeals

Now cometh the (Sovereign) to this Courts for the following regards

① This is not an Administrative setting (Joseph R. Shakibanasab) can only appear in administrative law courts hearings for SCDC. ② Prisoners are held to the lowest standard because (we) are not attorneys to know about laws. ③ If the (Sovereign) complied with the Courts orders and ask to strike the April 12th, 2023 letter (or) same motion or Motion - S Refer to this its sole purpose is to prolong Justice in my behalf to hide the fact the sentence ing order / Commitment order is Invalid committing Criminal Actions and asking the Courts to help them commit more (fraud upon the Courts) as well crimes. ④ Joseph R. Shakibanasab can't work for SCDC and Represent them. ⑤ Joseph R. Shakibanasab can't Interest) and He's Having SCDC staff to deny me the stuff I need to properly litigate this case, causing me hardship with using the (prison program) tablet they're taking Illegal pictures of me and having Guards Apart of secret societies place government helpers / snitches in the cell with me, around me, and from the start I was not to be Accepted by SCDC with an Invalid Commitment order per SCDC policies op-21.04 inmate classification - n plan # 4.2, op-21.04 inmate records plan # 3.3.2, 3.3.3. ⑥ As well For order for the Courts to Accept the Alleged Counsel for SCDC Joseph R. Shakibanasab held have to file a motion (there was a letter) Dated (January 23rd 2023) to Clerk Kitchings, via Email to Honorable Jenny A Kitchings who should have been struck do to it not being in proper form All things from this corrupt individual is asked to be struck and with prejudice and be made to stop addressing this case. ⑦ Ask a verdict be given on the Commitment order is it for Shaheen Cabbagestalk (or) James Cabbagestalk, is there any A.K.A.'s on it? (By: Shaheen Cabbagestalk 4/19/23)
