Dear Mrs. Khee'Asia Evans-Pryor,

I am writing to request information regarding Assurety Bond information regarding Judge Jay Vinson Jr.s. As a civilian, I believe it is important to have access to this information when Civil rights violations have come into question. I have been unable to find this information through other sources, and I hope that you can assist me in obtaining it.

Specifically, I am requesting the following information: 1) The necessary form for filing a claim or where the form may be found. 2) The contact information for where the form must be submitted. 3) The amount of the bond and the bonding agency. I would appreciate any relevant documents, reports, or data sets that may contain this information.

If there are any fees associated with processing this request, please let me know the cost and the method of payment. I am willing to pay any reasonable fees required to obtain this information.

I understand that it may take some time to process this request. If possible, I would appreciate an estimated timeline for when I can expect to receive the information. If you are unable to fulfill this request, please let me know as soon as possible by contacting me at (864) 814-8350.
