Arthur, pursuant to our call this afternoon, I am confirming my request for a copy of the transcript from the hearing in the case of Knapp v. Jenkins et al. as referenced above.

I understand the transcript needs to be transcribed.

I have copied opposing counsel on this email in case he also wants a copy.

Miles,

So sorry for my late response. I have the transcript pulled up from the March 13th hearing. It looks fairly short so it won't take long to produce. I should have it to you in the next two weeks if that suffices. If you have a need-by date, please advise.

Thank you,

Good afternoon,

Our office's court reporter, Josie Boehm, would have handled the hearing held on March 13, 2023. I have copied her on this email to assist you. Unfortunately, I do not have the name or contact information for the court reporter who covered the December hearing. At that time, I believe our office was alerting attorneys that they would need to provide their own court reporter for their hearings, as Ms. Boehm was on maternity leave. Please let me know if you have any other questions or concerns.

Lillian/Katie: see email below. I got the message that Marti is on maternity leave after sending it. And I left Mr. Haller off by accident. He is opposing counsel and copied to this email. Please let me know if either of you can help with this.

Marti: not sure if you are the right person to go to for this but I need to know the name and address of the court reporter who handled the hearing on 13 March 2023. My understanding is that it was the court reporter assigned to Judge Scarborough's court.

I need to send a request for transcript of record for the appeal I filed and want to make sure I am sending the letter to the right person/place.

Also if your records show who the court reporter was for the hearing held on 12 December 2022, please advise. I believe it was a private court reporter for hire but I don't have a copy of her contact info/name.

I've copied opposing counsel on this email too. Mr. Haller if you have the name, can you provide it to me?
