Re: Joseph P. Sellaro v. South Carolina Dep't of Social Services
Appellate Case No. 2022-001218
Motion for Extension

Dear Mrs. Kitchings:

Respondent Joseph P. Sellaro requests a third extension of 15 days to file the Initial Brief of Respondent and Designation of Matter for the Record on Appeal. Appellant consents to the extension. The reasons for the extension are out-of-town medical appointments and that counsel was working on an expedited pre-trial schedule in federal court for a trial set to begin on May 8 that recently settled. The Initial Brief and Designation of Matter are currently due on Monday May 8, 2023. An order granting a 15-day extension will make the Initial Brief and Designation of Matter due on Tuesday May 23, 2023.

By electronic copy of this letter, I am serving all counsel of record as stated below.

Pursuant to Order 2020-05-29-02, the $50.00 filing fee is being mailed to the Court within five days of the date of this electronic filing. Thank you.

Sincerely,

s/Kathleen C. Barnes
