Dear Ms. Knight:

The Court received your correspondence dated April 28, 2023. Please be advised that you do not currently have an appeal pending in this Court and the information that you have provided does not constitute a Notice of Appeal as required by Rule 203 of the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules (SCACR). Therefore, no further actions will be taken. The fact that you are not an attorney does not relieve you of the responsibility to perfect your appeal in accordance with the SCACR. These rules are now available on the Internet at www.scourts.org.

According to Rule 203 of the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules, a notice of appeal must include the name of the court from which the appeal is taken; the judge's name; the lower court docket number; the date of the order being appealed; a statement of when the appealing party received the decision from which the appeal is taken; the name of the appealing party; and the names, mailing addresses, and telephone numbers of all attorneys of record and the names of the party or parties represented by each. A copy of the order being challenged on appeal, a certificate of service showing the notice has been timely served on all respondents, and a filing fee of $250.00 must accompany the notice of appeal.

Very truly yours,
