MOTION FOR LEAVE TO FILE THE NOTICE OF APPEAL WITH THE CIRCUIT COURT
OUT OF TIME

Appellant Lennar Carolinas, LLC ("Lennar") respectfully moves the Court, pursuant to Rule 263(b) and Rule 240(a) of the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules, for an order granting Lennar leave to file out of time the Notice of Appeal in the captioned matter with the Circuit Court.

The basis for this Motion is that (1) this Court's jurisdiction over the case was established when Lennar timely served the Notice of Appeal on all parties and filed that Notice of Appeal with this Court timely; (2) good cause exists for the Court to grant Lennar leave to file the Notice of Appeal with the Circuit Court out of time; (3) Lennar's filing of the Notice of Appeal with the Circuit Court two (2) business days after the deadline for filing has caused no delay to this appellate proceeding and no prejudice to Respondent Royal Palms Property Owners Association, Inc. ("Respondent"). The good cause associated with Lennar's late filing of the Notice of Appeal with the Circuit Court is that Lennar's lead counsel was receiving testing and treatment for a serious illness during the time in which the Notice of Appeal was due to be filed with the Clerk of the Circuit Court and co-counsel was unexpectedly dealing with family medical issues during the time when the Notice of Appeal with the Clerk of the Circuit Court should have been filed.

The procedural history of this case supports the Court granting Lennar leave to file the Notice of Appeal with the Circuit Court out of time. Respondent initiated the underlying civil action by filing a complaint asserting purported construction defect claims against Lennar and other subcontractor and developer defendants. In response to the Complaint, Lennar filed a Motion to Compel Arbitration pursuant to the arbitration provision in the Royal Palms Declaration of Covenants, Conditions, and Restrictions. On January 24, 2023, the Circuit Court held a hearing on Lennar's Motion to Compel Arbitration, and on February 10, 2023, entered an order denying Lennar's Motion to Compel Arbitration. Lennar timely filed a Motion to Alter or Amend the Order denying the Motion to Compel Arbitration. On March 2, 2023, the Circuit Court issued an order denying the Motion to Alter or Amend without holding a hearing.

On April 3, 2023, Lennar filed timely with the Court of Appeals a Notice of Appeal of the Orders denying the Motion to Compel Arbitration and denying the Motion to Alter or Amend. That same day Lennar served the Respondent and all counsel of record with the Notice of Appeal. On April 7, 2023, Lennar provided the Court and the parties to this case with notice that it had requested a copy of the transcript of the hearing on Lennar's Motion to Compel Arbitration.

Rule 203(d)(B), SCACR, provides that an appellant file the Notice of Appeal with the lower court within ten (10) days following service of the Notice of Appeal. Therefore, since Lennar served the Notice of Appeal on all other parties, and filed the Notice of Appeal with the Clerk of the Appellate Court on April 3, 2023, it should have filed the Notice of Appeal with the Clerk of the Circuit Court by Thursday, April 13, 2023. See Rule 203(d)(B), SCACR. However, Lennar did not actually file the Notice of Appeal with the Clerk of the Circuit Court until Monday, April 17, 2023.

The service of the Notice of Appeal on all parties in timely fashion established this Court's jurisdiction over this matter. Lennar served the Respondent, and all counsel of record, and filed the Notice of Appeal with the Appellate Court within thirty (30) days of the Circuit Court's issuance of the Order denying the Motion to Alter or Amend. See Rule 203, SCACR; see also Charleston Lumber Co. v. Miller Housing Corp., 318 S.C. 471, 458 S.E.2d 431 (Ct. App. 1995) (stating that "[c]lerical errors in a notice of appeal do not destroy the appeal" and noting that the respondents were not prejudiced by the Court's exercise of jurisdiction over the appeal in a case in which the appellant failed to appeal one of five cases that were tried together).

Rule 263(b), SCACR, permits this Court to extend the time for filing the Notice of Appeal with the Clerk of the Circuit Court if the Notice of Appeal has been served timely on the Respondent. See Lovette v. Sonoco Prod. Co., No. 2004-UP-159, 2004 WL 6250393, at *5 (S.C. Ct. App. Mar. 11, 2004) (stating that "[t]his court may allow late filing of a notice of appeal if timely service has been accomplished for good cause shown").¹

Lennar timely served Respondent with the Notice of Appeal and filed the Notice with the Appellate Court. The remaining issue is whether the Court may conclude that the late filing of the Notice of Appeal with the Clerk of the Circuit Court can be excused for good cause. In this case, Lennar's inadvertent and unintentional delay in filing the Notice of Appeal with the Circuit Court was primarily the result of extenuating circumstances. During the time when the Notice of Appeal should have been filed with the Clerk of the Circuit Court (the day before and the day of the filing deadline with the Circuit Court) the lead attorney for Lennar in this case was out receiving testing and treatment for a serious illness. Unfortunately, co-counsel who handled the service of the Notice of Appeal and the related filing of that Notice with the Clerk of the Appellate Court, also was unexpectedly dealing with family medical issues during the time when the Notice of Appeal with the Clerk of the Circuit Court should have been filed. The combination of those circumstances affecting the two attorneys who would have monitored and acted within the deadline allowed the error to occur without timely discovery.² Lennar believes, and asks the Court to find, that these extenuating circumstances constitute good cause for the Court to issue an order granting Lennar leave to file the Notice of Appeal with the Clerk of the Circuit Court out of time.

Lennar filed the Notice of Appeal with the Clerk of the Circuit Court two business days after the filing deadline. That late filing did not cause any delay in the appellate proceedings and did not cause any prejudice to Respondent. Nonetheless, on April 26, 2023, Respondent filed its Motion to Dismiss the appeal. The following day, Lennar attempted to consult with Respondent's counsel to resolve the motion, and the consultation continued to Monday, May 2, 2023 due to Respondent's counsel's availability. On Monday, May 2, 2023, Lennar's counsel explained the facts and circumstance as set forth herein and requested Respondent's counsel's consent to a Motion for Leave to File the Notice of Appeal with the Circuit Court Out of Time. Nonetheless, Respondent's counsel refused any professional courtesy to Lennar's counsel and declined to consent to Lennar's Motion unless Lennar acceded to Respondent's attempt to gain leverage from the circumstances and made additional unjustified concessions to Respondent. The parties had additional communications during the week of May 2, 2023; but Lennar has been unable to obtain Respondent's consent to this Motion.

The underlying appeal involves whether the circuit court erred in denying Lennar's Motion to Compel Arbitration. As Lennar will demonstrate in the briefs that it will file with the Court, Lennar has meritorious arguments that support this Court issuing an opinion reversing the Circuit Court's denial of the Motion to Compel Arbitration.

Furthermore, the late filing of the Notice of Appeal has not impacted this Court or the Circuit Court and has not, and will not delay the appellate proceedings. Lennar already, on April 7, 2023, requested a copy of the transcript of the proceedings below and further activity in this appeal is dependent on the date the transcript is received. Certainly, Respondent has not been, and is not prejudiced by the late filing of the Notice of Appeal with the Circuit Court just as Respondent will not be prejudiced by this Court granting Lennar leave to file the Notice of Appeal with the Circuit Court outside the initial filing deadline.

Based on the foregoing, Lennar respectfully requests the Court grant it leave to file the Notice of Appeal with the Circuit Court no later than three (3) business days of the entry of an order granting Lennar's Motion for Leave to file the Notice of Appeal with the Circuit Court out of Time.
