SC Court of Appeals

vs
South Carolina Department Of Correction, Respondent,

Motion To Make Perry Correction Institution
Official Return Appellant Legal Box.

Appellant request this court assistance of receiving his legal box from Perry Correction Institution "PCI" Official/Administration Official. On June, 12, 2013 the appellant was put on Special Management Unit "SMU"/administrative segregation for a disciplinary charge. While on SMU the appellant request his legal box/legal material out his green duffel bag from PCI Property Control Room, by sending a SCDC Request To Staff Member Form 19-11 to Lt. Wilson, and she explain to appellant that legal box/legal material is not in PCI Property Control Room and it lost or destory.

PCI Administration Official/Officer's lost or destory the appellant legal box. Appellant file several motion to this court and SCDC General Counsel Office to Christopher Florian and letter and all these document are lost or destory without justification. PCI Administration Official is retaliated against appellant of filing motion, and appeal to this court. Appellant complain to PCI Administration of this matter and no one don't know where is appellant legal box at, or it can't be found. On June 6, 2013, SCDC General Counsel wrote to the clerk Ms. Jenny A. Kitching explain they will file respond to appellant Initial Brief but, appellant can't respond back when PCI Administration Official would not let appellant have his legal box. Appellant continue to perfect his appeal process and now PCI-Administration Official is totally hinder me.

Appellant only ask this court  to make PCI Administration Official return appellant legal box.
