Case # 2021-001271 Respondent,

The State,

VS.

Appellant

Jamie Goss,

---

Motion Motion

Opposition to Object Initial Brief of
Respondent Motion and Designation of Matter

I'm Jamie Goss received Respondent Brief on March 24 2023; I bidding the Constitution's guideline shall be protect as a matter of law.

I'm Jamie Goss of the United State will object to ~~to~~ all Argument and Issues on Merits IN state Initial Brief of Respondent Motion and Designation of Matter. All claim is preserved for Appeal review. I Jamie Goss file Compassionate Release due to extraordinary circumstances motion IN The Court of Common Plead. I Jamie Goss have prove to the Court that the State of South Carolina Constitution don't have nothing in law dealing with the Following; Short of Staff, prison over-crowding and Jamie Goss extraordinary circumstances with covid-19 and his kids. I Jamie Goss will ~~not~~ like for the Attorney General Office to stop playing with my life under these extraordinary circumstances.

All Issues was preserved at court. The Court Report claim that she ~~could~~ could not here me at court and Refund me $50 meaning pages was missed from the Record.

In conclusion Petition argues Motion for Compassionate release under Extraordinary Circumstances was argued in the proper form and venue. Circuit Judges have an obligatory duty to review any and all constitutional infringements specifically those of prisoner in this case. The Federal Care Act preempts State due to its conflict of interest explicitly the fact that South Carolina does not provide Covid relief to prisoner even under extraordinary Circumstances of over-crowding and Short of Staff, I Jamie Goss petitioner ask the court to reverse and remand with an ~~opinion~~ opinion;
