Clerk, South Carolina Court of Appeals

Re: In the Matter of the Care and Treatment of William Deans
Appellate Case No. 2013-000879

Dear Ms. Kitchings:

This letter is to confirm the Attorney General's Office received the Appellant's Motion regarding payment of the transcript in the above-referenced appeal. I take no position on the Motion. As evidenced by the recently filed Motion to Hold Appeal in Abeyance, however, having a transcript is necessary to respond to questions in Appellant's Initial Brief.

By copy of this letter, I am again advising Appellant of my involvement in the appeal, and asking that he direct all future pleadings in this appeal directly to me.

Sincerely,

Deborah R.J. Shupe
Senior Assistant Deputy Attorney General
