RE: Therl Taylor v Charles Brooks, et al
Appellate Case No. 2013-001133

June 17, 2013

RECEIVED

JUN 21 2013

SC Court of Appeals

Dear Ms. Allen:
As directed, is a verbatim handwritten copy of the SUMMON, 19 Page Complaint (2 Affidavits ) requested within the Courts June 3rd (20 Day) written instruction. Thank you for looking into this matter.

For clarity, this case was mailed to Sumter County Court of [C]ommon Pleas in care of Barbara Sharper. The underlying concern is with Sumter Clerk's Office failure to file and issue a basic Civil Action Number, so proper-timely service be made.

Also, please be reminded during much effort and time the original [t]yped Complaint, Summons Exhibits/Attachments, including several Affidavits oddly disappeared. The Sumter Clerk's Office was immediately notified, as well as SCDC/Employees. *** To date, the initial Complaint, etc. have not been found.

Once again, since this specific case was not appropriately filed by the Clerk's Office according to very Basic Constitutional Provisions, relevant case law and SC Code Ann S24-27-100 & 150 Statutory Authorities, under clear Poverty/Indigent ~~and~~ the case in question in further effort to Challenge or otherwise alter the current wrongful conviction and sentence, as well as injust "Conditions of Confinement", No Proof of Service was created. But for the filing of this case and civil number issued Service upon the Defendant been conducted. Once filed, or if this Honorable Court specifies who it may require to serve, Plaintiff will Diligently do so.

Please clock stamp this document and forward to (any interested parties deemed necessary) and return with your reply.

I am Grateful for any Justice the Court should deem proper.

In Fairness,

Thad
