IN THE COURT OF APPEALS

APPEAL FROM CHARLESTON COUNTY
Court of General Sessions

v.

AKIM JAMMAR JEAN-CHARLES, APPELLANT

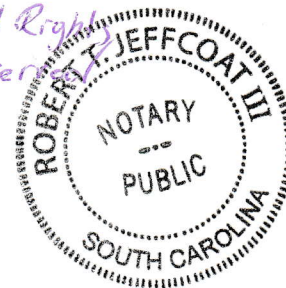

MOTION FOR EXTENSION OF TIME TO ORDER TRANSCRIPT

I, Akim - Jammam: Jean-Charles, an aggrieved man, hereby move this Court for an extension of time to obtain the transcript in this case. I am moving this Court in good faith for good cause and believe the extension of time is warranted for reasons. First, the record of the trial hearing is exceptionally vital to understanding the errors of law and deprivations of due process that I am alleging due to the many oral objections, challenges of the previous record, and constitutional challenges and arguments I rose during the trial that go to the heart of my appeal. Second, an extension is fair and just, the South Carolina Appellant Court rules allows for court reporters to request up to three extensions in cases where it is needed for good cause, I believe it is just to do the same for me under equal protection of the law. Third, Financial hardship, the court reporter is charging me [$1763.75 USD] in order to obtain the transcript, the trial court has already designated me indigent by their calculations, and in the recent weeks I have been burdened with either paying an alleged and disputed debt or go to jail in a separate and unrelated case that forced me to get financial help from friends and family because I didn't have the money to pay the alleged debt, which was [$7500.00 USD] plus court cost. Since my last motion and request for an extension, new family financial hardships have occurred that required my first fruits and cost me [$2300.00 USD] and was essential to life and sustainability. Fourth, medical hardship, on the thirteenth day of February I was found positive for "Covid-19" and my ability to work was greatly disrupted further adding to my financial hardships I stated previously. Therefore, I respectfully move this Court to grant the Motion for extension of time.
