Case No.: 2013-000948

Herbert Alonzo Robinson

plaintiff- Appellant

v.

Charleston Police
Dept. (CPD)

Defendant- Appellee

Appellants'

Motion to Proceed

Without Prepayment
of Costs Therefor

I, Appellant, Herbert Alonzo Robinson, moves this Noble Court pursuant to Rule 240, SCACR, to allow him to proceed with this Appeal without prepayment of fees or costs therefor and agree to have his prison Account (E.H. Cooper Trust) debited to pay installment fees.

Appellant, prays the Honorable Court will allow him to redress his Appellate issues and cannot pay the initial costs for filing due to his Indigent Status. Please see Attached AFFIDAVIT.

Defendant-Appelles

Affidavit of
Herbert Alonzo Robinson

Personally Appeared before me, Herbert Alonzo Robinson who states:

- 1) That I'm currently confined within the South Carolina Dept. of Corrections (SCDC), serving a Conviction for Burglary 2nd Degree.
- 2) I've Attached the Order of Dismissal or Judgment in the Above Referenced matter. I've Submitted or filed my Notice of Appeal on May 14, 2013. I wish to proceed with my Appeal, however due to my Indigency and Non-spendable balance of $0.00 (Zero Dollars) wishes to do so without prepayment of fees or costs, and have my prison Account Debited to make installment payment, since matters of this Appeal involves my Conviction for Burglary 2nd Degree.
