Columbia, SC 29201

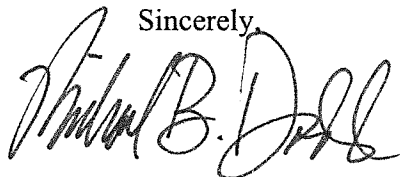

RE: Ivan Martinez v. Oriole Properties, LLC
Appellate Case No. 2023-000726

Dear Ms. Kitchings,

I am writing today concerning the court's letter dated May 30, 2023, regarding the time for ordering transcripts in this case. Please see the attached correspondence showing that the transcript was ordered and received in this case. Counsel for all parties has also been advised of this and are aware of the relevant transcript(s). It is my understanding that Rule 207 of the SCARC has been complied with.

The Office of Court Administration and opposing counsel have been copied on this correspondence via mail and email. Please let me know if you need anything further from me at this time.

Sincerely,

Michael B. Dodd

Good morning, Michael! Hope you are well and having a great day!

Attached hereto please find the transcript you requested of the trial held in the above matter on 2/28/23. Please let me know if you have any questions. Also, please advise that you've received this email so I know you have the transcript.

As you know, this transcript is the property of this Court and should not be shared in any fashion. If you should have a request for the transcript, please direct the requesting party to me at my email or physical address. I had this happen recently and was not a happy camper☺

Thanks so much!!!
