This case was commenced by the filing of a Pro Se action by the Plaintiff Anthony James on behalf of himself and the other two named Plaintiffs. The Defendant responded through counsel by filing a Rule 12 Motion and seeking dismissal on several specific grounds. The Motion was originally scheduled and the Plaintiff James appeared in custody and asked for and received the appointment of a Guardian Ad Litem to wit Brock Wise, Esquire. The matter was then rescheduled and Mr. James appeared with Mr. Wise. The Defendant appeared and was represented by his counsel of record Walter Ameika, Esquire. After reviewing the filings and arguments the Court considered that the Defendants Rule 12 Motion should be granted on the grounds that Rule 12 B (6) applied, to wit, the Plaintiff failed to state a course of action.

Accordingly, IT IS HEREBY

ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED that this cause is hereby dismissed for failure to state a cause of action.

AND IT IS SO ORDERED at Charleston, South Carolina this 23 day of April 2013.
