Good Afternoon,

We have not received an electronic copy of the filing. Please resend the email and you can copy me on the email as well. Please proceed like the motion for extension has been granted once you receive a clocked copy back.

Respectfully,

Sierra Ritchie

Dear Ms. Ritchie:

On Wednesday, May 31, I emailed to ctappfilings@sccourts.org for filing a Motion for Extension of Time for Respondents to file their Return to Appellants' Petition for Rehearing. I did not receive a reply from the Court of Appeals yesterday. This morning, around 8:00 am I checked the website to see if our Motion had been filed. It had not. I have attempted twice to contact the Clerk by telephone but to no avail. I sent a Paralegal assistant to the Clerk's office, and she brought with her a copy of our Motion of identification purposes, and a cover letter delivering the filing fee check. I received back a clocked copy of the copy I sent with her.

The Motion is still not showing on the Court of Appeals website. The urgency is that the original due date for our Return is June 5 (Monday). We asked for four day, until June 9, to file the Return. I need to know today that our Motion has been received and to determine today whether our Motion will be granted.

Would you please look into this situation for me and let me know if my original e-filed Motion reached your office, and whether our Motion will be granted.

Thank you in advance for your kind consideration. You may reach me at 803-256-4242 or by replying to this email.

Yours very truly,
