Re: Paragon General Contraction v. SCDLLR
Appellate Case No. 2013-001279

Dear Ms. Allen:

I am in receipt of the enclosed letter dated June 17, 2013, in reference to a case entitled Paragon General Contraction v. SCDLLR. I have no information on this case, have not been involved in this litigation, and do not know Mr. Brendan Curran. I have never represented Paragon General Contraction or the South Carolina Department of Labor, Licensing and Regulation. I believe my listing on this case is in error. From 2007 through January 31, 2013, I was a Commissioner on the Workers' Compensation Commission. I returned to private practice on February 1, 2013, but have primarily handled only workers' compensation claims for injured workers.

If you need any additional information from me, please let me know. Thanks for your assistance.

Yours very truly,

MICKLE & BASS, LLC.

Re: Paragon General Contraction v. SCDLLR
Appellate Case No. 2013-001279

Dear Mr. Curran:

This Court has received your notice of appeal, and the case has been assigned the appellate case number that appears above. Please use this number on all future correspondence relating to this matter.

All parties to this matter are advised that all filings must comply with the requirements of Rule 267 of the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules (SCACR). The SCACR are available online at www.sccourts.org/courtreg. Additionally, any filings submitted by counsel admitted in South Carolina must include counsel's bar number.

The attention of the parties is directed to the order relating to the inclusion of personal data identifiers and other sensitive information in documents filed with the Supreme Court of South Carolina and the South Carolina Court of Appeals. The order can be found at www.sccourts.org/courtOrders/HTMLFiles/2007-08-13-02.htm. Please note that the responsibility for insuring that information is redacted or sealed as required by this order rests with counsel and the parties. This office will not review filings for redaction or to determine if materials should be sealed.

Very truly yours,

V. Claire Allen, Deputy

Re: Paragon General Contraction v. SCDLLR
Appellate Case No. 2013-001279

Dear Mr. Curran:

Upon reviewing your notice of appeal, the following deficiency or deficiencies have been noted under the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules (SCACR), and any deficiency must be corrected within fifteen (15) days of the date of this letter:

- The notice of appeal is not accompanied by the order(s) and/or judgment(s) challenged on appeal.
- The required filing fee has not been submitted. The correct filing fee is $100.
- Failure to have counsel representing corporate entity.

Very truly yours,
