STATE OF SOUTH CAROLINA
IN THE COURT OF APPEALS

On Certiorari to Cherokee County
The Honorable Robin B. Stilwell, Circuit Court Judge
Lower Case No. 2016-CP-11-00293

Case No. 2017-001777

Alonzo C. Jeter, III, PETITIONER,

v

State of South Carolina RESPONDENT.

MOTION TO RECALL THE REMITTITUR

Petitioner, Alonzo C. Jeter, comes respectfully and motions this Court that it would recall its remittitur issued on May 1, 2023. Petitioner received notice and copy of this remittitur by and through the MacDougal Correctional Institution's Legal Mail System, on May 16, 2023.

Petitioner does pray that this Court would recall the remittitur albeit it would not appear that it is due to an error or inadvertence on the part of this Court or its officer. State v Barnes, 413 SC 1, 774 S.E.2d 454 (2015).

However, looking more closely the Court should be reminded that Petitioner has informed this Court of the recent hardships he has experienced within the SCDC which has ultimately hindered Petitioner's access to this Court and inability to file an appeal in this case.

Petitioner asks that this Court take judicial notice of the Motion For A Temporary Restraining Order and/or Preliminary Injunction that was filed in the South Carolina Supreme Court on March 17, 2023 in Atlenzo C. Jeter, III v State, Appellate Case No. 2023-000024.

In addition, Petitioner asks that this Court take judicial notice of the correspondence dated April 21, 2023, which was filed on April 26, 2023, in the South Carolina Supreme Court, in the case of Atlenzo C. Jeter, III v State, Appellate Case No. 2023-000024.

Petitioner would emphasize that he has not had until recently access to his legal files. Petitioner regained access to his legal files on May 8, 2023. Notwithstanding the gained access on that date, Petitioner informs this Court that the legal files were in a disarray once returned and Petitioner is even now still attempting to make sense out of the files.

Secondly, and equally of importance is the fact that Petitioner's access to legal supplies has been substantially limited. Petitioner has been transferred and is currently Under an SCOC policy which limits the amount of legal supplies Petitioner may receive to 5 envelopes and 10 sheets of paper and one ink pen per month.

Petitioner has other pending actions which he litigates pro se, has had to provide notice of Change of mailing Address in these cases and has not had the envelopes nor paper which would allow him to file timely in the case sub Judice at bar.

Wherefore, the Petitioner, prays this Court would Recall the Remittitur issued in this case and provide opportunity for Petitioner to appeal this court's decision to the South Carolina Supreme Court.

Respectfully submitted,

Alonzo C. Jeter, III
