

The South Carolina Court of Appeals

Robert E. Shirley, Jr., Appellant,

v.

South Carolina Department of Employment and Workforce and The Boeing Company, Respondents.

Appellate Case No. 2022-001718

ORDER

Appellant has filed a motion to "remove" the Administrative Law Court (ALC) as a Respondent to this action. Because the ALC is not a party to this action, the motion is denied.

Appellant has also filed a motion "to dismiss this case" due to the South Carolina Department of Employment and Workforce's "lack of overwhelming evidence." To the extent Appellant wishes to dismiss this appeal, he may do so by filing a motion to withdraw pursuant to South Carolina Appellate Court Rule 260. To the extent Appellant is seeking to address substantive issues with the appeal, the merits of the appeal will be reviewed following final briefing.

Finally, Appellant moves for an extension to file his final brief. However, Appellant has yet to file an initial brief that complies with the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules and this court's order of March 24, 2023. Accordingly, within fifteen days of the date of this order, Appellant shall file an amended initial brief that complies with the SCACR and this court's order, or this appeal will be dismissed.
