Dear Court of Appeals:

Enclosed is a copy of the receipt of the Correspondence that was filed on July 9, 2023. But I am curious, in the transcript Judge G. D. Morgan did not ask for proof of service? In fact, he just accepted the word of the Atty. Appleby and the Clerk that I received notice of the hearing. I did not receive anything. Nothing was accepted onto record as evidence that I received anything. But my case, was dismissed on that premise. Respectfully, are procedures requirements for that differs in Appeals Court than in Circuit Court for requiring Proof of Service? If, you are in need of any additional information, please do not hesitate to contact me at the above email address. Thank-you in advance to all attention given to this email.
