I, Joseph N. Grate, the plaintiff in this civil action, do make the following claims:

1. Plaintiff herein is an owner of the property at 437 Waverly Road, indicated on the Georgetown County Tax Map as parcel number 04-0204-022-00-00. Also located at said parcel, is the structure indicated as building number 421, on the County's Tax Map.
2. Defendant herein is currently occupying the above indicated Building 421 / 421 Waverly Road; DBA Hair Destini Salon & Boutique.
3. This complaint is properly filed in Georgetown County.

Plaintiff makes this complaint as follows:

1. Plaintiff submits that Defendant is not authorized to occupy said premises.

2. Defendant's presence there represents an immediate, constant, and serious Liability for Plaintiff.
3. Plaintiff, as of June 5, 2020, asked defendant to vacate the premises, by June 15, 2020.

Plaintiff seeks relief as follows:

1. That the court orders defendant's removal from the premises, immediately.
2. That defendant be ordered to pay plaintiff for all damages or alterations to the premises.
3. That defendant be ordered to refrain from entering upon subject premises.
4. That defendant be ordered to pay all costs associated with the bringing of this matter.

Wherefore, Plaintiff states that the above is correct and truthful, prays for all relief as indicated above.

NOTICE OF APPEAL

Joseph N. Grate appeals the judgment of the Honorable Isaac L. Pyatt, dated July 28, 2020. Appellant received written notice of entry of this judgment on October 28, 2020.

Pursuant to Rule 18 of South Carolina Rules of Magistrates Court,

Appellant herein appeal the disposition of the case, on the following grounds:

1. The case was filed on June 15, 2020, for the purpose of having respondent removed from the property;
2. to have respondent pay for any alteration or damage to the property;
3. to have respondent pay all cost associated with the bringing of the action.
4. Appellant has not been notified of service upon respondent;
5. Appellant has not received an answer to the complaint;

6. Appellant contends that item 4 and 5, above represent serious Procedural / Legal / Judicial violations;
7. Appellant contends that given items 4, 5 and 6, above, the Judge committed a serious error in his handling of the proceeding or of even having convened the proceeding.
8. Appellant contends that the Judge erred in accepting and presented to Appellant, Dubious Documents from Respondent, as satisfaction of his complaint.
9. One of the Dubious Documents, bears evidence of a Fraudulent Nature which, in effect, renders The Judge complicit in that Crime against Appellant.
10. The Judge did not present a decision on the case, during the Trial.
11. The case was heard on July 28, 2020;

RULE 5 COMPLAINT

(a) A suit is commenced by filing with the magistrates court a short and plain written statement of the facts showing what the plaintiff claims and why the claim is made. Provided, however, upon a personal appearance, the plaintiff may make an oral statement which shall be reduced to writing. The court or court personnel shall assist the plaintiff in reducing the statement to writing if the court determines assistance is required. This statement shall be called a complaint. A plaintiff may combine as many claims as the plaintiff has against a defendant in one case and may sue more than one defendant in one case if the claim involves all of the defendants.

(b) The plaintiff shall state on the complaint the address to which the court may mail notices and correspondence concerning the case. If the plaintiff's mailing address changes, the plaintiff must advise the court in writing. The court may notify the plaintiff of all proceedings incident to the case by mailing the notice by regular mail to the plaintiff at the address provided.

(c) A plaintiff who desires to file an action without costs shall file a motion for leave to proceed in forma pauperis, together with the complaint proposed to be filed and an affidavit showing the plaintiff's inability to pay the fee required to file the action. If the motion is granted, the plaintiff may proceed without further application and file the complaint in the court without payment of filing fees.

RULE 7 ANSWER AND COUNTERCLAIM; TIME FOR FILING

(a) The defendant may reply to the plaintiff's complaint by filing a written statement in a form approved by the magistrate or by personally appearing and making an oral statement. This reply shall be called an "answer." If the defendant personally appears within the specified time period and makes an oral answer, it shall be reduced to writing. The court or court personnel shall assist the defendant in reducing the answer to writing if the court determines assistance is required. The defendant's answer may deny in total or in part any or all of the material allegations made in the plaintiff's complaint, and/or allege any new matter constituting a defense. The court shall deliver a copy of the answer to the plaintiff in a manner provided for in Rule 8.

(b) A defendant shall file an answer and any appropriate counterclaims with the court within thirty (30) days from the first day after the date of service. When service is by some other means, as provided for in Rule 6, the defendant shall file the answer and any appropriate counterclaims with the court within the time period designated by the statute, rule, or order, and the time period shall be stated in the summons.

Fourteenth Amendment

- Section 1

All persons born or naturalized in the United States, and subject to the jurisdiction thereof, are citizens of the United States and of the State wherein they reside. No State shall make or enforce any law which shall abridge the privileges or immunities of citizens of the United States; nor shall any State deprive any person of life, liberty, or property, without due process of law; nor deny to any person within its jurisdiction the equal protection of the laws.

Benjamin M. Mabry, Columbia, S.C., for plaintiff.

Vance J. Bettis, Columbia, S.C., for defendants.

ORDER

... The magistrate judge makes only a recommendation to the Court, to which any party may file written objections within ten days after being served with a copy of the report and recommendation. 28 U.S.C. § 636(b) (1) (B)-(C). The Court is not bound by the recommendation of the magistrate judge but, instead, retains responsibility for the final determination.
