Good afternoon, Ms. Ashby Jones and Mr. Andrew Farley:

Mrs. Cronin brought in her Apple iPhone 14 and Lenovo Yoga 7 laptop computer this morning. I have successfully acquired forensic images of each device. Prior to her coming in, she telephoned me yesterday to express her concerns regarding confidentiality, namely attorney-client privilege and HIPAA-related information. Thus, we will want to apply a keyword search list to filter out confidential information and/or isolate relevant information.

Additionally, it was my understanding that Mrs. Cronin also owns an Apple iPad device. However, she indicated that the iPhone and laptop were the only devices. Is this correct?

Thank you,
