

RECEIVED

Jul 05 2023

S.C. SUPREME COURT

From: allure fauxx
To: Supreme Court Filings
Subject: Re: Ms. Patricia Howard. Rehearing filing mix up
Date: Tuesday, July 4, 2023 11:14:07 PM

 EXTERNAL EMAIL: This email originated from outside the organization. Please exercise caution before clicking any links or opening attachments. ***

South Carolina Appellant Court Rules

RULE 262 FILING AND SERVICE

(a) Filing. Except for petitions for rehearing (Rule 221) and motions for reinstatement (Rule 260), filing may be accomplished by:

(2) Depositing the document in the U.S. mail, properly addressed to the clerk of the appellate court, with sufficient first class postage attached. The date of filing shall be the date of mailing;

"The date of filing shall be the date of mailing"

On Tue, Jul 4, 2023, 10:49 PM allure fauxx <allurefauxx@gmail.com> wrote:

My apologies in my haste I forgot to give you his information. Robert Cannon. Case No:2023-000762

On Tue, Jul 4, 2023, 10:47 PM allure fauxx <allurefauxx@gmail.com> wrote:

My cousin contacted me asking me to go online and check if his rehearing was filed. I did so and notified him of your most recent letter sent out. He stated that he had not yet. I read to him its contents and he said that the time frame for him to reply to the order which was 15 days by law is supposed to start once the order is received by him. Which was on the 12th of June 2023. Which means his deadline should have been on the 27th of last month. However even had that not been the case his motion for rehearing was in SCDC's mailbox on the 20th. By your words he needed to respond by the 21st which he did. He told me that "per SCSC very courts ruling in Mose V State 420 S.C. 500 (2017). "A motion is considered filed once prisoner places it in the mail." He said he'd send a letter to the court but also wanted me to email you just in case. Thank you for your time. God bless