NOTICE

The public can access electronic court files. Federal Rule of Criminal Procedure addresses the privacy and security concerns resulting from public access to electronic court files. Under this rule, papers filed with the court should not contain: an individual's full social security number or full birth date; the full name of a person known to be a minor; or a complete financial account number. A filing may include only: the last four digits of a social security number; the year of an individual's birth; a minor's initials; and the last four digits of a financial account number.

Does this motion include a request that any documents attached to this motion be filed under seal? (Documents filed under seal are not available to the public.)

Yes

No

If you answered yes, please list the documents in section IV of this form.

Have you personally submitted your request for compassionate release to the Warden of the institution where you are incarcerated?

Yes, I submitted a request for compassionate release to the warden on see ATTACHED REQUESTS

No, I did not submit a request for compassionate release to the warden.

If no, explain why not:

Dear Jamie Goss,

I am responding to your correspondence received on 07/10/2021, in which you requested consideration for parole. Please understand the SC Department of Probation, Parole and Pardon Services schedules cases for parole consideration, as prescribed by law. SCDC Records indicate that you are currently serving a sentence for a No-Parole Crime, which means you are not eligible for parole consideration regarding 2006GS264735. I trust this information has been to your benefit.

Sincerely,
