

The South Carolina Court of Appeals

Kenneth Dippel, Appellant,

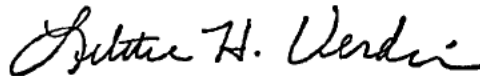

v.

State of South Carolina, 15th Circuit Solicitor's Office, and SLED, Respondents.

Appellate Case No. 2023-000048

ORDER

On July 5, 2023, Appellant filed a motion for "leave to file supplemental addendum to final briefing." Respondent did not file a return. After careful consideration, we construe Appellant's motion as a letter providing this court with pertinent and significant authorities that Appellant discovered after the filing of his initial briefs. See Rule 208(b)(7), SCACR ("When pertinent and significant authorities come to the attorney of a party after his initial brief(s) has been served and filed, the party shall promptly advise the clerk of the appellate court, by letter, with a copy to all counsel, setting forth the citations. There shall be a reference either to the page of the brief or to an issue to which the citations pertain, but the letter shall, without argument state the reasons for the supplemental citations."). Respondents may respond to the letter within ten days of the date of this order. See Rule 208(b)(7), SCACR ("Any response shall be made promptly and shall be similarly limited.").
