Dear Mr. Dehlinger,

I am sorry for the delay in response as I was out on vacation last week. We are no longer appellants in this matter. I am attaching correspondence to and from the transcript office indicating same as well as the correspondence from the Court of Appeals noting this change. Please accept my apologies for any confusion or lack of diligence in communication on my part. I have copied all counsel, as well as Rosie Moran, the paralegal now handling this request for your reference and communication. If this has already been taken care of, I would appreciate it if you would notify me of same for my notes. Many thanks for your assistance.

Warm regards,
