The case is currently scheduled for trial in January of 2024. I have asked Court Admin for a term of court and they told me I have to wait until the calendar comes out to request a term of court (which makes zero sense). The case is progressing normally and should be resolved (assuming they give us a term of court) in Early 2024. We are doing regular status conferences with the parties and they are aware of this scheduling. REH
