RE: The State v. Kendall M. Baccus
Appellate Case No. 2013-000905

Kendall:

I have not been able to determine whether the issues we discussed after your plea are appealable or not. I forwarded your appeal paperwork to the Office of Appellate Defense to make them aware of your case.

On an appeal from a guilty plea, you must specifically identify issues which you feel are appealable. The Court of Appeals has informed me that you must inform them, in writing, at the address below of any issues which you feel are appealable. As I stated before, I have not been able to identify any at this point. If you can identify any, send them something in writing within the next twenty (20) days at this address:

South Carolina Court of Appeals
P.O. Box 11629
Columbia, SC 29211

I have enclosed with this letter a copy of your file, which you requested in a letter I received today. If you need anything else, please don't hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely,
