

The South Carolina Court of Appeals

The State, Respondent,

v.

Roland Green, Appellant.

Appellate Case No. 2023-000300

ORDER

Appellant has filed a motion to relieve Lir Patrick Derieg as counsel and seek other counsel. After careful consideration, the motion is granted. Appellant shall, within thirty days of the date of this order, notify this court whether he has procured new counsel. If this court does not receive notice within thirty days, it will presume Appellant is proceeding pro se.

Appellant may proceed pro se in this matter only after knowingly and intelligently waiving the right to counsel. See Faretta v. California, 422 U.S. 806 (1975); State v. Brewer, 328 S.C. 117, 492 S.E.2d 97 (1997). We take this opportunity to warn Appellant that this court requires pro se parties to fully comply with all applicable rules. Appellant is certain to be unlearned in other aspects of the law as well. Representation by an attorney trained in the law would be highly beneficial, and we strongly encourage Appellant to proceed with representation.
