Ms. Kitchings,

Thank you for your email. Counsel for Appellant is also available December 4, 5, or 7. John T. Lay and I have a pretrial motions hearing in federal court on December 6 for a trial moving forward in January.

Thank you for your consideration,
Lindsay

Dear Ms. Kitchings:

Thank you for your note. I can be available in December (I would prefer December 5, 6, or 7 if possible) if the Court would like to schedule the matter at that time. I would also like to update the Court on the matter I previously mentioned in Charleston. A second mediation was held, and the parties have just executed a mediator's abbreviated settlement agreement, with Plaintiff's signature being provided on August 9. The formal settlement agreement is being drafted now. I expect the settlement to go through. Nevertheless, I would prefer the December dates mentioned.

Thank you for your consideration.

Dear Counsel,

As you know, we are attempting to schedule this case for our November term of court. Before making a decision in light of Mr. Dunlap's scheduling conflict, I have been asked to inquire about your availability for December 4, 5, 6, and 7. Please reply to this email to let me know if anyone has a conflict for those dates.

Jenny Abbott Kitchings
