MOTION FOR EXTENSION

Counsel for Appellant asks the Court for a sixty (60) day extension in which to file his initial brief. In order to establish good cause, Counsel for Appellant asserts that he has just completed a response to a motion for summary judgment in district court that had over five hundred pages in exhibits (C/A No. 10-cv-3162-JFA), a complaint must be filed in by May 30, 2013 in the district court in the Middle District of Georgia, a response brief in Occupy Columbia v. Haley is due on June 27, 2013 at the Fourth Circuit Court of Appeals, and trial is set in In the Matter Osman, case no. A-200-675-140 at the Immigration Court in Lumpkin, Georgia, at the Stewart Detention Center. The above cases are considered big projects and not included are regular appearances in family court, the Court of General Sessions, and the Court of Common Pleas and depositions.

For the above reasons, Appellant asks for an additional sixty days to file his initial brief

Respectfully Submitted,
