Dear Ms. Thompson,

Please find attached a PDF copy of the scheduling order Judge Griffin signed on July 19, 2023, which was filed on July 21, 2023. I did not see that you had been provided a copy and thought you might need that for your records. I understand from the below email that you have already been provided a copy of the order appointing counsel.

Sincerely,
Melody

Subject: RE: State v. Jerome Jenkins, Jr.

Dear Ms. Thompson:

Good morning. I write to let the Court know that Mr. Salter has retired from the office. His "official" last day is July 19th but he is not in the office at this time. I would much appreciate if you would please show him as “inactive” on this matter and direct any correspondence to my attention. Of course, if you should need a formal letter or anything further, please let me know. Thank you.

Sincerely,
Melody

Thank you for your email. Judge Griffin convened an appointment of counsel hearing on June 21, 2023 and appointed me and John Warren to represent Mr. Jenkins. A copy of the order of appointment is attached. Also, Judge Griffin has a proposed scheduling order under consideration.

Thank you for your attention to this matter. Please let me know if you have any questions or require additional information.

Best,
Charles
