I have received a letter from the South Carolina Court of Appeals indicating that you have twenty (20) days from the date of this letter to contact the Court of Appeals in writing and inform them of any argument that you may be able to put forth indicating that there are issues preserved for appeal. I have included a copy of that letter from the Clerk of the Court of Appeals dated August 10, 2023 for your review. As that letter indicates, you are instructed to send your letter setting forth the issues that are preserved for appeal to the following address:
