Re: The State v. Zy'Tawn Keinas Childs – Appellate Case No. 2023-000386

Dear Mr. Childs:

Our office received your Affidavit of Indigency on August 14, 2023. After careful review, question 1(b) was not completed, and your signature was not notarized at the end of the form. Therefore, I am enclosing the Affidavit of Indigency that you sent to us. Please complete the highlighted question, sign your name again on page three in front of a notary public, and return the Affidavit to our office in the self-addressed stamped envelope. You do not need to worry about question 7 of the Affidavit of Indigency since you are presently incarcerated.

Once we have received the original completed Affidavit of Indigency, we can decide if you qualify for our services. Please return this affidavit to us within ten (10) days of the date of this letter. If you have any questions, or need additional information, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely,

Adriane Burk
Legal Services Coordinator
