To: Court of Appeals

I understand South Carolina Department of Employment and Workforce motion to dismiss. I followed each rule through the SCAR court rules. I understand as the pro se' appellant that it is my duty to conduct correct paperwork. I just wanted to the courts to take in account that I was approved for medical leave after the time of termination. While dealing with my mental health & depression and anxiety. To ensure that I did not voluntarily sever my position with Amazon and even after the date of termination. I still fought to correct my paper work and self to be emotional and physical fit to return back to work. However, at the time of turning in my paperwork I was still suffer trying even If the answer was no. All I may ask of the courts is to look through the lines. To see that I have not kept this continuous for any reason to see me. I understand fully if the motion is not taken in my favor from the untimeliness of my attention. Thank you in respects of your time and consideration to allow me this far.

Respectfully,

Miya Shay Freeman
