v.

State of South Carolina
RESPONDENT

IN THE COURT OF APPEALS

CASE NO #

RECEIVED
2018-CP-42-5566

REQUESTING Rule 5.6. Supreme Court reversal of order of dismissal

and sentence reversed

At the P.C.R hearing I requested relief due to the facts that trial attorney was ineffective. Since there is no ruling in the court of appeals at the moment in the Supreme court. I seek a just ruling without prejudice. Certain evidence wasn't introduced and docketed in the court of common pleas, that I wish for the court of appeals to examine, I moves the court of appeals to reverse the order of dismissal and grant relief due to the facts that the evidence clearly proves that trial attorney was more concern about himself during trial rather than building a strong, solid defense strategy that would of brought different outcome to the verdict of jury. Evidence proves this fact by viewing the transcript of a conversation that was taken place between trial attorney and the Solicitor overseeing the trial. This evidence will prove to the courts that I could not in anyway possible receive a fair trial. Trial attorney was ineffective and this proves him to be. I seeks a ruling of relief on the grounds that the trial was unjust, unfair staged and prejudged before the beginning of my trial. I seeks a speedy resolution and for the courts to grant relief. The following document proves my statement to be true. And the court should grant relief because of this proof.

Yes – I figure my client is going to file a PCR on me when the case is over so I need to protect myself as much as possible.

William,

Will you stipulate to the phone records? Or will you insist on a custodian of the records? These come from far away places.

Thanks,

Derrick
