Mr. Clark,

I am in receipt of the oral argument notice that was issued this afternoon, and I must sincerely apologize to the Court. I was recently scheduled for oral argument before the United States Court of Appeals for the Fifth Circuit on October 4, 2023.

My office should have notified the Court of this scheduling conflict as soon as the Fifth Circuit issued its oral argument notice, and I apologize for our failure to do so. Under the circumstances, is it possible to request a reset of the argument?

Respectfully,

Russell Post
