Re: Appeal 2023-0000720, John Doe #53 et al. v. The Bishop of Charleston

To the clerk:

I received today an order from the Court which refers to a motion made by parties for which the Court has granted intervention. I am not aware of having received that motion, so if I could be included on all matters related to this appeal, I would appreciate it. Matters should be directed to me at:

attygm@gmail.com

The court's order sets a timeline of "thirty days after Appellant's corrected initial brief and designation of matter is served and filed." About that quoted portion I would appreciate some clarification and, perhaps, some direction.

My clients are appellants, but so is Mr. Sires, who is pro se. My initial brief and designation was served and filed with the court on June 22, 2023, according to the file-stamped copy returned to me. I am not aware of any corrections asked for as to my brief and designation.

Can I trouble you to clarify if that refers to a submission by Mr. Sires or by me? And if it relates to my submission, can I be informed as to what corrections have been requested, as I am not aware of any needed.

Thank you very much.

Sincerely,

Gregg Meyers
