v.

South Carolina Department of Corrections, Respondent.

Appellate Case No. 2012-210588

ORDER

On February 21, 2013, Appellants filed a Motion to Abbreviate the Record on Appeal with this court, seeking an order to allow the parties to designate representative samples for the record on appeal. Additionally, Appellants requested an order providing that the records of the Administrative Law Court would be made a part of the record of appeal without the parties having to copy and transport the documents.

Respondent did not file a return. On March 13, 2013, Respondent filed a motion to compel Appellants to clearly identify the material referenced in the Motion to Abbreviate the Record on Appeal. Additionally, Respondent requested the timeliness associated with the parties' briefing be held in abeyance until the issues concerning the record on appeal are resolved. Appellants filed a return opposing Respondent's motion for clarification. Appellants did not oppose the timeliness extension.

After careful consideration, Appellants' Motion to Abbreviate the Record is denied. Because we deny the Motion to Abbreviate, we need not consider Respondent's motion to compel.
