RE: Darnell Hunter v. SCDC
Case No. 2013-001402

Dear Mrs. Allen,

Hello ma'am, I have every reason to believe that this letter and proof of service will reach you at the most inopportune of times, and I apologize in advance for that unfortunate coincidence. It is, I assure you, only a matter of extreme importance, indeed urgency, that would drive me to seek you out a time like this and place upon you a request that I am confident, your magnanimity will not permit you to deny...

Ma'am, I have no earthly idea why my proof of service [was not] included along with my notice of appeal because [it was] filed along with it. I know that a proof of service was indeed filed along with the appeal, unless, the mail person opened my sealed legal mail and took it out. If that's the case please let me know. However, I'm resubmitting a proof of service on [all] parties again. Also included is the envelope to show that I received this imperative on July 5, 2013 that's when my ten days started. Also, could you please send me the Rule 267 of SCACR if it's not too much to ask and I thank you in advance. In as much who is Christopher D. Florian and James E. Shealy?

In closing I would like to emphasize the compelling nature of the request being placed upon you. I am sure you will understand the paramount need for speed and secrecy.
