Dear Counsel:

We are advised that you were retained counsel for William L. Cokley during his guilty plea. Under Rule 264, SCACR, you are still considered counsel of record. In light of that fact, please provide the Rule 203 (d)(1)(B)(iv) explanation within ten (10) days of the date of this letter.

Very truly yours,

Jenny Abbott Kitchings

Re: William L. Cokley
Our File No.: 13107

Dear Mr. Kerse:

Please accept this correspondence as written confirmation that I have been retained by William Lanard Cokley. It is my understating that you represented Mr. Cokley in connection with his no contest plea to one count of a chop shop violation and one count of being in possession of a stolen vehicle arising out of Dorchester County with a plea being entered on or about August 13, 2012. Upon receipt of this correspondence, I would greatly appreciate your office forwarding me a copy of Mr. Cokley's file. Should you have any questions please do not hesitate to contact me.

Thank you as always and I look forward to hearing from you in the near future.

With kindest regards, I am

Very truly yours,

JOSHUA A. BAILEY
