Subject: Re: McGee v. McGee

Thank you all for your emails. As this matter has not yet been stayed by the Court of Appeals, and both parties have arguments to be heard regarding whether the hearings are automatically stayed and/or Family Court should stay the hearings due to the filing in the Court of Appeals; this matter will need to be heard and addressed by the presiding judge for the pending hearings next week at the call of the case. I believe I have copied all counsel on this email from the prior emails. If I have not, please forward to any counsel inadvertently omitted. Thank you.

Spiros S. Ferderigos, Judge

The Family Court of the Ninth Judicial

Circuit
