Juashan Gregory, #309223; Docket NO: 13-ALJ-04-0418-AP
Appellant

VS.

S.C.D.C., ALC
Respondent

Notice of Appeal From
The decision of the Administrative law Judge

RECEIVED

JUL 15 2013

This matter is before the south carolina SC Court of Appeals Court of appeals because the appellant has had a bad decision rendered against him. I appealed SCDC decision of my step 2 grievance which affirmed the conviction for possession of a cell phone or other type of communication device (898) SCDC OP-22.14, Inmate disciplinary system.

In the ALJ order of dismissal he has stated, "(B) made no claim for the loss of any other state created liberty or property interest;
and, (C) made no contention that his sentence, Sentence related credits or custody status has been erroneously calculated. There is clearly no state created liberty interest implicated here."
This apparently is an oversight or misunderstanding.
It's common knowledge within my case that my

Custody status changed when I was moved from a level 1 to a level 2 facility. By me being innocent of the above SCOC violation there is a direct injustice to my state created liberty interest. The ALJ's order must be confined to the record yet the appellant wasn't given a chance to present an original brief to the ALJ. I've been denied the right to present my statements of issues for appeal, statements of issues for appeal, statements of the case, my argument, and conclusion. The ALJ's decision has been made too quickly. I was assigned a case # on 6-14-13 and my case was dismissed on 6-17-13. I ask that I be given a chance to present my facts of the case and that this court remand the case for further proceedings. I deserve a fair chance to present my complaint.

The appellant therefore contends that the ends of justice would best be served by remanding this case for further proceedings and allow the appellant to present evidence of facts.
