Re: Status of Hendricks v. SCDMH, et al., 2022-001788.

Wednesday, August 9, 2023

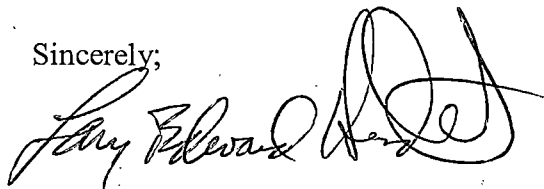

Dear Sir or Madam;

I hope that this letter finds you and yours in good health and spirits. I recently received a copy of the public index for the Sixth Judicial Circuit and noticed that it showed a remittitur from this Court on May 10, 2023. It stated the appeal was dismissed. I did not receive a copy of that remitter nor any other document from the Court of Appeals in the last few months.

The last legal document that I received from this court was an Order dated March 1, 2023, in connection to the motion that I filed, prose, on January 6, 2023, to withdrawal previous motions filed by attorney Ola Johnson. That Order stated that my appeal would be in abeyance for 30 days while screening was conducted by Office of Appellate Defense, so that I would have assistance of counsel, pursuant to the SVPA. On March 14, 2023, attorney Ola Johnson came to the Wellpath R.S. facility personally, and had me fill out an affidavit of indigency, and he had a notary standby to notarize the signing of that document, of which he took with him, but the facility made him leave me a copy, pursuant to HIPPA. I have heard nothing further regarding my appeal, or appointment of counsel.

Could you please tell me the status of my appeal, and whether counsel has been assigned? I am confused what the public index is stating. I appreciate your attention to this matter. Have a good day.

Sincerely;

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Larry Edward Hendricks". The signature is fluid and cursive, with a large, stylized initial "L" and "H".

Larry Edward Hendricks
