Clerk Kitchings—Good morning. Please note and e-file my attached letter advising the Court of the Respondents' withdrawal of the Motion to Dismiss that I e-filed yesterday. Mr. Crowe reached out to me after I filed it, and advised that the documents had been hand-filed with your office and that is why I had not received an e-file notification. And then several hours later, the US Mail package arrived at my box in the Lowcountry. So, I was mistaken in my belief that the documents had not been timely filed.

Thank you. Please let me know if I need to do anything else to clear the motion off of the court's agenda.

Mr. Crowe is copied on this email and letter.

Best.
