RE: Interstate Towing v. Alieo Garga-Richardson
Appellate Case No. 2013-001282

Dear Mrs. Allen,

Your letter dated on July 2nd, 2013 informing me that I had 10 days to provide proof of service of my Notice Of Appeal was received on July 3rd or the 5th; can't remember the exact date.

However, I had called you on the phone informing you that the addressed submitted in my proof of service for Interstate Towing and Recovery was the one given me by the Clerk at the Magistrate Court in Rock Hill.

In responding to an earlier letter sent by your office informing me that I had not included the Order from the Common Pleas Court in notice of appeal to the Appellate Court, I discovered that another address was listed for Interstate Towing and Recovery.

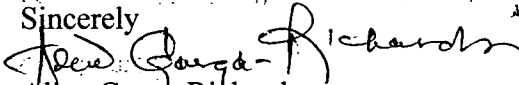

I am therefore sending a copy of the Notice of Appeal to this address also, which is according to my records;

Interstate Towing and Recovery
P. O. Box 384
Rock Hill, SC 29732

Thanks

With Kindest Regards

Sincerely

Alieo Garga-Richardson
