THE STATE OF SOUTH CAROLINA

APPEAL FROM RICHLAND COUNTY Court of Common Pleas

George M. McFadden, Jr., Circuit Court Judge

Case No. 2023-000970

Angela Robinson, individually and as Guardian Ad Litem for M.C., a minor, & Robert Cooper

Appellants,

v.

and Charles Touhey

Defendants

Of which,
Uber USA, LLC, Uber Technologies, Inc. Rasier LLC, Rasier-NY, LLC are

Respondents

Joint Motion to Stay or, in the Alternative, for Extension of Time to File Initial Briefs

Appellants and Respondents jointly move to stay all pending deadlines in this matter for sixty (60) days or, in the alternative, for an extension of time as set forth below. This motion is based on the pending resolution of the underlying case. Specifically, after the filing of this appeal, the parties reached an agreement to resolve the issues pending appeal. However, this matter is still pending approval by the Circuit Court.

As a result, the parties jointly request that the Court of Appeals stay all pending deadlines in this matter to permit the Circuit Court the opportunity to approve the resolution. In the alternative, the parties seek an extension of an additional 60 days to the deadline for Appellants to serve and file their initial brief.

Extraordinary circumstances exist for the stay or extension because while the parties have reached an agreement to resolve this case, South Carolina law requires that this agreement be approved by the Circuit Court, which remains pending. As a result, the need for the stay or extension is based on matters outside the parties' control. Further, the stay or extension will preserve both judicial and party resources. Finally, the stay or extension serves the interests of justice.
