APPELLANT’S MOTION FOR FIFTEEN DAY EXTENSION TO FILE REPLY OR OTHERWISE RESPOND TO RESPONDENT’S INITIAL BRIEF FILINGS

Appellant respectfully moves for a fifteen day extension to file a Reply Brief or to otherwise respond¹ to Respondent’s Initial Brief and Designation of Matter filing. The basis for Appellant’s request is the Americans with Disabilities Act in light of Appellant’s psychiatric disabilities, principally ADHD and bipolar disorder, which cause Appellant to require additional time to prepare and file most court documents, particularly documents which require a lot of drafting such as an appellate brief. Appellant has previously described his psychiatric situation in detail in prior filings relating to extension requests, which are incorporated herein by reference.

Respectfully submitted,

¹ It appears that Respondent’s Initial Brief improperly includes references to materials outside the record below. Appellant is likely to file a motion to strike these improper portions of Respondent’s Initial Brief.
