Re: The State v. Timmy L. Douglas

Rule 203 Letter for Appeal: (20) days

SC Court of Appeals

Dear Court,

The following issues are my response for filing with my Notice of Appeal.

Prior Trial Evidence was not disclosed by solicitor of gun in possession of another suspect. Counsel failed to disclose information of ~~sup~~ suspect in possession of fire arm connected to Appellants case and did not use this information for trial preparation to defend Appellant or in mitigation of sentence duty to disclose information in a case by solicitor of exculpatory evidence is a due process guarantee under Brady material and violated Appellant rights under the 6th Amendment of right to present defense.

Solicitor's failure to disclose person in custody for possession of Fire arm that Appellant was being charged with using in the case significantly effective Appellants trial rights and if not for these errors and disclosure with proper trial preparation from counsel ~~app~~ Appellant would of proceeded to trial

McKnight v. State, 378 S.C. 33, 46, 661 S.E.2d 354, 360 (2008)

Walker v. State, 407 S.C. 400, 405, 756 S.E.2d 144, 147 (2014),

Stackland v. Washington, 466 U.S. 668, 691, 104 S.Ct. 2052, 80 L.Ed.2d 674 (1984).

Appellant respectfully request this court to file this reply under rule 203 for Appeal

Respectfully submitted

Timmy Douglas
