10-day Notice letter from Court

Molly M. Morpew v. Stephen Dudek,
Doreen Cross

Dear Ms. Kitchings:

Today I received a 10-day notice or letter from this court dated September 27, 2023, stating "the time to provide the initial brief of appellant and designation of matter has expired, and if this court does not receive the brief and motion to file the brief outside of time, the appeal will be dismissed" (copy of letter attached).

After speaking with this court today and confirming the final transcript was received on September 24th, 2023, and that the initial brief is not due for 30 days after receiving the final transcript (Rule 208), they provided that this letter be issued in response to this court's 10-day notice. It appears the initial brief is not due until October 24, 2023. Please advise.

Thank you and with kind regards,

Molly M. Morpew, pro se

Dear Ms. Morpew:

According to our records, the time to provide the initial brief of appellant and designation of matter has expired. Within ten (10) days from the date of this letter you must provide the brief and a motion to file the brief outside of time, or this appeal will be dismissed.

Very truly yours,
